

The future of EU security and defence

Exploring ways to build peace

Dialogue webinar organised by the COMECE Youth Net on security and defence to explore today's global threats and the strategic responses shaping the global and European dimension. Engage in insightful discussions, ask questions, and deepen your understanding of modern security challenges with Philip McDonagh and Krastio Preslavsky.

Philip McDonagh

Served as Ireland's ambassador to India, Russia and the Holy See. Currently adjunct professor and director of the Centre for Religion, Human Values and International Relations at Dublin City University and global fellow at the Princeton-based Centre of Theological Inquiry.

Krastio Preslavsky

Currently, working in the Directorate-General for defence industry and space of the European Commission as deputy head of unit responsible for the programming of the EU defence industry programmes: the European Defence Fund (EDF), EDIRPA and ASAP, as well as for SME support and outreach.

Please, register below

by scanning the QR code,
or clicking here

SAVE THE DATE

5 JUNE, 2025

ONLINE 17.30-19.00